To Cotton Planters - We desire to inform you that we are prepared to supply all our Customers with Cotton Gins this year. Our shop is furnished with the hest of stock and workmen, and every Gin is run in the shop, and none go out that do not run well. We suppose we have made more Gins than any other Gin Company, and we are determined to keep up the reputation of our Gins. We desire to call your attention to a new and wonderful improvement in cotton gins, which combines the "LINTER ATTACHMENT" with other improvements, and enables the planter to gin his seed as clean as desired. We have recently invented and perfeeted a Gin with Reel, or Linter attachment, and have thoroughly tested it, and now offer it to Planters and Public Ginners with undoubted confidence that it fully meets a want that has long been felt. It gins rapidly and turns out cotton of the best quality without injuring the steple. It will gin the seed much better than any other gin; it evercomes much friction in the cotton box; preserves the roll intact, even with carless attention; secures the highest speed; cleans the seed perfectly; rescues the staple from injury, and gives to the planter his cutton in that condition which secures to him the highest market price. Patented July 15th, 1873 Orders addressed to Pratt Gin Co., Memphis, Tenn for the Dan't Pratt In-
